

Why should we as XM Satellite Radio subscribers be limited to listening to the services that XM offers us? I subscribed to XM for the reason that they offer so much to their listeners and will not stand for those services being taken away! XM and other satellite radio companies should have the right to broadcast the same information as the other radio stations.